

Please stop. I am so disgusted by telemarketers bothering me at home and at work. Yes, they now call me at work because my work number was listed on a charge card application. If I have to stop answering the phone altogether, I will.